

JOIN OUR PHOTOVOICE PROJECT

Empowering Mothers to Build Drug-Free Families

Are you a mother or mother-to-be with lived experience of substance use and living in Florida? Share your story, inspire change, and help create a healthier future for families through our innovative PhotoVoice project!

WHAT IS PHOTOVOICE?

PhotoVoice is a unique initiative combining photography and storytelling to amplify your voice, share your experiences, and drive positive change. Participants will capture their lived experiences, challenges, and successes, transforming them into powerful narratives.

WHY JOIN?

1. EMPOWERMENT

Use photography to tell your story and advocate for healthy families.

2. COMMUNITY

Connect with other mothers and share your journey in a safe, supportive space.

3. IMPACT

Raise awareness and inspire change through public exhibitions and community dialogues.

WHAT'S INVOLVED?

- Workshops: Learn photography skills and explore storytelling techniques.
- Group Sessions: Discuss challenges, successes, and solutions in creating drug-free families.
- Exhibitions: Showcase your work and share your story with the community.

EARN $100 FOR PARTICIPATING!!

This is your chance to share your story, connect with others, and make a difference in your community.

SIGN UP HERE!

Questions?

- Email: clincoln@dfaf.org
- Call: 727-828-0211 ext. 4

MULKA NISIC

This project will be led by a female facilitator, Mulka Nisic, with extensive expertise in both the methodology of PhotoVoice and the recovery process. Mulka, who brings a personal background in supporting recovery within her own family, as well as academic qualifications in related fields, will guide participants through this project.